

CENTRE FOR
FREE EXPRESSION

School Libraries and Curriculum Under Attack: Why? and What to Do?

Wednesday, November 29
7 PM - 8:30 PM EST

Moderator:
James L. Turk
Director, Centre for
Free Expression

Anita Brooks Kirkland
Chair, Canadian
School Libraries

Tammy Le
President, British
Columbia Teacher
Librarians' Association

James Saunders
CEO, Saunders
Book Company

Graham Shantz
Associate Director,
Waterloo Region
District School Board

Bitter fights over which books belong in school libraries and among curriculum resources have put schools and teachers at the center of a nasty and widening culture war. Join a panel which will explore why this is happening, what it means for education in Canada, and what should be done.

Event Link: torontomu.zoom.us/j/91941276567

Co-sponsors:

- BC Teacher Librarians' Association
- Canadian School Libraries
- Manitoba School Library Association
- Ontario Library Association/Ontario School Library Association