

Banning books in schools:

What does it mean for students?

CENTRE FOR
FREE EXPRESSION

Thursday, November 9
4 PM - 5:30 PM EST

Moderator:
El Jones

Poet, Journalist, and Assistant
Professor of Political and
Canadian Studies at Mount
Saint Vincent University

Dáminí Awóyigà

High School Student, Halifax
Youth Poet Laureate, and
Founder of the Afro-
Indigenous Book Club

Jayreece Whiley

2023 Valedictorian, Charles P
Allen High School; African
Nova Scotian Spoken
Word Artist

Micaiah Aladejebi

Student at Sackville High
School, Student Council
Treasurer, Recipient HRM
Youth Volunteer Award

As schools face demands to remove books from their libraries and curriculum resources, few consider students' views. Join a panel of students who look at recent bans -- what it means for them, why it's happening, and what schools, students, and the community should do.

Event Link: torontomu.zoom.us/j/91941276567

Co-sponsors:

- Canadian School Libraries
- PEN Canada